Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt
Assistant Secretary of the Navy
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Roosevelt:

May I again call myself to your memory, this time to ask a little assistance from you. I am enclosing a copy of a letter which I am sending today to the Bureau of Navigation, which explains itself, and I write to you to ask that you use your good offices to secure the granting of the request made in that letter.

Lt. Col. Sir Arthur Leetham feels that the recent award of American decorations to English officers has aroused considerable interest in Great Britain in regard to these decorations, and wants to so equip his Museum that a study of them will be possible.

Very sincerely yours,

Assistant to Curator.
